Cycling

E-BIKES - E-MTB MTB

Discover the heritage of the Versant du Soleil!

Enjoy the three e-mountain bike trails on the south-facing side of the valley. Discovery trails take you between traditional villages and Alpine paths. There are also three routes for standard e-bikes.

Map/guide for MTB/E-MTB/ E-bike available from Plagne Valley and La Côte d'Aime Valezan tourist info points.

For all bikes

A 15 km cycle path runs from Aime to Bourg-St-Maurice.

On this "green trail", you can cycle, jog, skate or just walk along the banks of the Isère river, in a fresh green setting.

CULTURE & HERITAGE

Tour Montmeyer and his middle age garden

In feudal times, major aristocratic families shared the land. The Montmeyer family, in the same way as the Count of Savoie, was a vassal of the Germanic Holy Roman Empire. Located at the bottom of the town, they controlled the river traffic on the Isère. Have a walk around his little middle age garden.

Villages, heart in the «valley»

Aime

Aime's town center makes a pleasant place for a stroll. A number of little squares, all with their own charm and history, encourage you to sit for a while. In the Place de la Cachouriaz, in the cool of the water trough more than a century old (built in 1900), the old cheese dairy can still be seen. A little further is the place Brunet in the heart of the old village, sits a fountain and benches that make it a symbolic place. Boutiques and stalls are set up in the main street which comes to life thanks to the members of the shopkeepers' association and la Plagne Vallée.

Bellentre

Bellentre is spread over both banks of the Isère river. Apart from the main village, the commune consists of thirteen hamlets : seven on the Versant du Soleil (the sunny side of the valley) : Le Gothard, Le Crey, Le Rocheray, La Grange, Le Villard, Bonconseil and Le Plan des Forches, and six on the left bank of the Isère, also known as Le Revers Le Mazuet, Les Granges, Le Grand Bochet, Montorlin, Montchavin and Les Cochés.

Villette

The village of Villette is situated at 740 meters high. It is made up of two hamlets Charves at 1300m high and Plan Villard, the mountain hamlet. A mainly residential commune, overlooked by the Château de Sainte-Anne, Villette grew thanks to its marble quarry, called the "Tarentaise rift".

Macot

The village of Macot is in a lush green setting on the river's edge and is sure to surprise you. Like any village, it is centred around the church. A stroll around the village will take you through little squares, passing traditional houses and shops.

Centron

At the end of the gorges of the Isère river, you can turn into the village of Centron. Discover St Claude's Chapel that was restored in the 17th century, as well as a 20th century church, a testimony to post-war architecture. Next to the river you can enjoy a rest by the lakeside, have a coffee at the snack bar, listen to some live music or go rafting !

Altitude Villages

Granier

On the Versant du Soleil, far from noise and stress, you will appreciate the tranquillity and authenticity of our village. Open your eyes and admire the stunning view ; you're surrounded by countless wonders.

Granier tourist info/ Bread / Dairy products

Tessens

Set on the hillside at an altitude of 950m high on the sunny side of the valley. Its two hamlets are Villaroland and le Breuil at 800m high. Most of the village's revenue comes from farming. The houses are in typical Savoyard style, centred around the church and linked together by narrow, paved streets.

Montgirod

Montgirod is an old village at 1100m. It was burned down by the German army during the Second World War. It has a baroque church with a curious stone worn by footfalls, evidence of millennia of human occupation, a sundial on the cemetery wall and numerous chapels and oratories. Above the village, there are hiking trails through the forest and Alpine pastures where cheese-makers make Beaufort cheese; an opportunity to get to know the world of mountain agriculture

Valezan

A small authentic village that still offers the traditional warm welcome. Aside from the panoramic view stretching from the Col du Petit Saint-Bernard to the Col de la Madeleine, its architecture is worth stopping for: traditional houses adapted to the slope and the wind, creating multifunctional work areas.

La Côte d'Aime

Enjoy the magic of discovering the ancient villages, vines and orchards, forests, alpine pastures, mountain lakes and rock-climbing route that are waiting just for you!
La Côte d'Aime & Valezan tourist information

Longefoy

Longefoy, with its red-tiled roofs, is a small village set at 1250m high, at the entrance to the winter and summer resort of Plagne Montalbert. The village overlooks the valley below and is itself overlooked by the Chapel of La Superga, a reproduction of the famous monument in Turin, set in lush green surroundings.

What to do in the different villages

Set off to discover the different villages by car or bike, or on foot, and enjoy a refreshment break in the different inns in Granier, La Côte d'Aime and Valezan.

Each village has its distinctive features. They are all the starting point for a choice of hiking trails in winter and summer! But that's not all, here are a few other ideas!

Tour of Aime's Beaufort cheese dairy

In winter: every morning, free tour to see the Beaufort cheese being made. Every afternoon, tour of the cheese cellar, on registration.

Ideal for getting your taste buds tingling and making your favourite dishes!

In La Côte d'Aime

Summer producers' market

Every Friday, 5.30 – 7.30pm in front of the town hall.

Churches & Chapels

In your car, on a bike or on foot, set off to discover the churches and chapels in the La Plagne valley. Finding out about them will immerse you in the daily and spiritual life of our mountain communities.

A voyage where time is suspended, that will make you appreciate baroque art and the superb landscapes around our mountain villages.

In Aime...

St Sigismond's church

Saint Sigismond's church is right in the centre of Aime. It is open daily 9am – 5pm.

Saint Sigismond's church was extended at the end of the 17th century. It displays all the characteristics of Baroque art in which the Biblical story is presented in gold and polychrome. After the coming of the French revolutionaries (Savoie was not French yet), the restorations of the 19th century brought neo-classical touches. The stained glass windows are from the 20th century. Amongst other things, the church houses a "Virgin Breast-feeding" from the mid-15th century.

In Valezan...

St François de Sales' church

Saint François de Sales' church is at the top of Valezan village. It is open every Thursday in July & August, 3 – 5.30pm.

Part of Bellentre priory until 1714, Valezan then became a parish in its own right and a church dedicated to Saint François de Sales, it was built between 1727 and 1730 at the top of the village, offering a superb panoramic view over the valley, to Mont Pourri and Bellecôte glaciers. The furnishings all in the same style, reflect the fervour of the local population at the start of the 18th century, as well as its financial strength (don't forget that we are on the prestigious Versant du Soleil).

In Macot...

St Nicolas' church

St Nicolas' church is in the centre of Macot. It is open July 2nd to August 31st, Mon – Sat, 9am – 4.30pm. It is closed on Bank Holidays.

The church dates back to 1679 - 1682 and was re-built in 1806 after being burnt down by the Aime Revolutionary Committee in 1794. When you enter the church you will be surprised by the baroque and polychrome decor. Helical columns, gold, colours, statues and paintings tell the story of the church and the mountain communities.

In Villette...

St. Agnès' church

St Agnès' church is in Villette. It is open daily, 10am – 6pm.

The church built in 1751, is dedicated to Sainte-Agnes. Specificity of the pulpit, the canopy represents a flower of sunflower instead of the traditional leaves of acanthus. In the choir, two large paintings, Christ and the Virgin, were offered by a local artist Jacqueline Sujdovic, at the request of the priest Lucien Vivet-Gros. The magnificent entrance gate was also offered by Roger Villien ironworker.

In Longefoy...

St Jacques' church

Saint Jacques' church is in Longefoy. It is opened on request in the summer and winter seasons.

This church, dedicated to Saint James the Greater dates from the end of the 17th century and was consecrated on August 28, 1687. Previously another church was built in its place but oriented differently. Construction work was decided at a General Assembly of the entire parish. From the 23rd of July of the same year, the contract was awarded to the Italian architect Calligato de Varallo. At the revolution, the bell tower was flushed by the revolutionaries and was rebuilt in 1812

To visit : 06 45 22 99 52

Notre-Dame des Neiges

Notre-Dame des Neiges is in the hamlet of Montgésin in Longefoy. It is only open in the summer and winter seasons from 9am – 6pm.

The Chapel of Montgésin was built in 1658 in the heart of the small hamlet of Montgésin. At first it was called Our Lady of Grace or Pity, then it was renamed Our Lady of the Snows. We went to the Chapel of Montgésin for pilgrimages, during processions from Longefoy and August 5th to ask for snow and signs of good harvests. The chapel has preserved a very beautiful altarpiece of baroque style recently redoubled. A major restoration campaign is being coordinated by the Association of Friends of the Heritage of Longefoy.

It is possible to make a commented visit on request to the 06 75 10 37 73

St. Marguerite's chapel

St. Marguerite's chapel is in Plan Pichu above Granier. It is open daily in July and August.

Located at 1940 meters, this chapel is the highest in the town. Until 1965, the parishioners went there in procession on 21st July. Her main name is Saint-Guérin, but sometimes she is referred to as Notre Dame de la Visitation, Sainte-Marguerite or Notre Dame-des-Neiges.

In Granier...

St Barthélémy's church

Saint Barthélémy's church in Granier is open daily 9am-6pm.

The exact date of its construction is not known, but the first document mentioning an "ecclesia de Graneriis" in the parish of "Greniers" in Aime dates back to 1344. The first building is dated 1538. The choir stalls were built from 1647 to 1653 and the side naves were added in 1670. The main altarpiece was created in the 17th century by Jacques-Antoine Todeskio, a Piedmontese artist. In 1732, the seating area was enlarged and the clock tower was raised. It was restored after the upheaval of the Revolution in 1808.

St Maxime's chapel

Saint Maxime's chapel is in the hamlet of La Thuile in Granier. It is open daily 9am-6pm.

Founded in 1476, it has a tribune that can accommodate all the population of La Thuile. The baroque altarpiece dates from the end of the 17th century.

Bonvillard chapel

The chapel is in a former hamlet close to Granier. It is open daily 9pm-6pm.

This chapel, dating from 1544, is located in a small hamlet that has disappeared. It is dedicated to Saint-Jacques-le-Majeur, apostle and patron saint of the pilgrims, and Saint-Pantaléon, patron of doctors and midwives.

In Villaroland...

St Eustache's chapel

St. Eustache's chapel is in Villaroland. You can see the interior through a grid.

Barely 2 km out of Aime, this small chapel looks very much like a smaller version of the Basilica. The frescoes tell the story of Saint-Eustache : the hunt, etc...

In Bellentre...

St André's church

St. André's church is in the centre of Bellentre. It is open every Wednesday from July 2nd to August 31st, 2.30-4.30pm.

The church of Bellentre is one of the oldest in the valley, its exterior aspect, still betrays its Romanesque origins. An inscription from 1772 in the apse attests that it was enlarged in the 17th century.. The main element of the building is a pulpit carved in 1765 by Joseph-Marie Martel

In la Côte d'Aime...

St Laurent's church

Saint Laurent's church is in Pierrolaz in La Côte d'Aime. It is open daily from June 16th to September 16th, 10am-6pm.

Built between 1702 and 1714, this church stands on the site of the former Chapel of Saint Laurent. The old chapel was used as the basis for the apse in the church's chancel. It was first known as the church and parish of Saint Amédée de La Côte. In reality, the first patron of La Côte was never canonised. He was actually Amédée IX the Blessed, who was the Duke of Savoie from 1465 to 1472 and married Yolande, Louis XI of France's sister. He was doubtless chosen as patron because his name, Amédée, was the second name of the ruling Duke, Victor-Amédée, who facilitated the separation from Aime.
